Post Summary:

Working in our busy warehouse this post offers you the chance to be part of a rewarding not for profit organisation that helps to change the lives of children and families across the UK.

The role may suit someone with previous general warehouse experience; however it is not essential to have this specific experience and we will consider those who have relevant transferable skills, such as attention to detail, team work and the ability to work quickly to help achieve group targets.

Lead by the Department Supervisor you will process donated stock by applying appropriate Newlife size and price labels to garments, removing original brand labels according to donor instructions, and hanging items ready for them to be sold in our stores.

You will work at processing benches in our warehouse environment, which normally requires standing.

If you feel you have the essential (must have) requirements and can also demonstrate a significant number of points from the desired (could have) requirements shown, please apply.

Essential Requirements:

- Good, basic numeracy and literacy skills
- Good communication skills.
- Ability to apply skills and knowledge to the products being handled.
- Ability to be precise and detailed in your work as accuracy is very important.
- Motivation and ability to work on your own initiative but also be able to work as part of a team
- A good work ethic, targets have to be achieved, so we can be profitable and achieve our aims.
- The ability to carry out lifting of boxes, plastic euro and other similar crates and move roll cages from time to time, you will be given training on this
- Ability to work overtime during busy periods

Desirable Requirements:

- Previous warehouse experience or experience in a similar processing environment, although this is not essential to the role.

Primary Responsibilities:

In respect of Newlife you will have responsibility for:

- Removing all branding on items in line with donor requirements/instructions and training.
- Attaching price tickets/stickers in relevant size to items in line with Company procedure and training.
- Tidily hanging garments on appropriate hangers and hanging on relevant rail.
- Working quickly and efficiently to hit group/team targets.
- Sorting hangers returned from store for reuse as required on 'an as and when basis', as requested by the department supervisor.
- Compacting all rubbish produced throughout the day as required 'on an as and when basis', as requested by the department supervisor.
- Keeping your workstation clean, tidy and safe.
- Helping to move stock from the warehouse to the sales floor and assist in the loading bay on 'an as and when basis' decided by the department supervisor.
- Safely moving roll cages as required in order to support the processing as required.
- Carrying out the role of 'runner' if required (place garment in relevant size cage. Ensuring shoes are correctly de-branded first and then forwarded to be placed in relevant crate).

Additional Responsibilities / Expectations:

- Work in accordance with all internal policies and procedures.
- Adhere to all Health and Safety policies and procedures and use all equipment in a safe and appropriate manner.
- Always compassionate and deserving of trust.
- Willingness to train and develop as required.
- Willingness to commit to our policies around equality and diversity.
- The commitment to be part of the culture of what makes Newlife different and successful.
- Ability to build good appropriate relationships with people at all levels while maintaining confidentiality and respect of your colleagues.
- Any other duties as required from time to time.

Notes:

All offers of employment will be made subject to satisfactory references being received.

All Newlife roles are subject to a 6 months probationary period.

Our Values:

- Always compassionate and deserving of trust - in all we do.
- Making things happen - for those we serve.
- Leading in our field - to make things better
- People at our heart-every day
